IN THE LABOUR COURT, GOVERNMENT OF GOA AT PANAJI

(Before Shri S. V. Nevagi, Hon'ble Presiding Officer)

Application No. LCC/15/85/M-1/86

Shri Ramnath Esvant Madolkar

— Applicant

V/s

Shri Bhago N. Lambar

— Opponent

Applicant represented by Shri Subhas Naik, Union Secretary.
Opponent represented by Shri K. N. Rao, Labour Consultant.

Panaji. Dated: 7th April, 1988

AWARD

This is an application filed by a casual labourer who worked as a short time driver with the Opponent Employer. Even though it is a simple application under section 33C(2) of the Act, the matter became complicated on account of the work before my predecessor the workman remained absent and my predecessor by his order dated 4-4-1986 dismissed the application on default of the workman who remained absent and awarded a cost of Rs. 50/- to the opponent employer.

After the dismissal of the application as on 4-4-1986 the workman presented an application for review supported by an affidavit dated 18-4-1986. By his order of the same day my predecessor directed this application to be treated as miscellaneous application. Shri Rao who appeared for the employer had no objection to review the previous order. Hence as a first step I reviewed the order passed by my predecessor on 4-4-1986 and I set aside the same and restore the original application to the file. The matter after review is again posted for hearing.

My predecessor by his order dated 6-11-1985 had framed three issues namely whether the applicant is entitled to the amount claimed and whether the applicant really worked for opponent between 19-5-85 to 26-5-85. Today the matter is fixed for hearing.

Now it seems that it is the turn of the opponent to make a default. The opponent is absent to-day. Shri Rao representing the opponent did submit before me that he had advised the opponent to pay the claimed amount of Rs. 800/- because the claim was legitimate and applicant driver really worked for the opponent for the period of 8 days between 19-5-1985 to 26-5-1985.

The workman who is examined today claims that he took the truck of the opponent loaded with goods to delivery at Bombay. He worked overtime because he was on duty for all 24 hours during the period of 8 days. According to him his daily wages were Rs. 50/- per day for regular work and Rs. 50/- overtime i.e. Rs. 100/- a day. He worked for 8 days and the total claim comes to Rs. 800/-. He states that the opponent did not pay him the dues but on the contrary the opponent tried to assault him. There is no cross examination by Shri Rao on behalf of the Opponent. The claim is considered to be just and proper. Hence I grant the total claim and pass the following Order:

ORDER

The opponent do pay an amount of Rs. 800/- (Rupees Eight Hundred only) to the applicant/workman in full satisfaction of the claim. There shall be no order as to cost.

This Award be reported to the Government.
